Let's Talk About It
Texas law SB8

By Yvette Tello

U.S. Representative Joaquin Castro (TX-20) issued the following statement on the Supreme Court's ruling on Texas law SB8:

“Under the shadow of night, the Supreme Court enabled and sanctioned assault on women's rights in Texas. For nearly a half-century, Roe v. Wade has been the law of the United States. There is no doubt that Republican's goal with SB8, and soon copycat legislation across the nation, is to overturn almost 50 years of precedent and strip away a woman's constitutional right to safe and legal abortion.”

“The consequences of the Supreme Court’s decision will be horrific for the women of Texas, particularly for Black women, Latinas, and women with lower income. The Court has allowed the most oppressive anti-abortion law to go into effect, negatively impacting millions of women. Most women do not even know they are pregnant after six weeks. This law seeks to interfere with every aspect of a woman's life, by not only empowering, but also incentivizing strangers with a mere speculation of a violation of SB8 and with a $10,000 bounty to insert themselves in the middle of a woman's most personal and private decision. Millions of women in Texas will now be denied access to critical healthcare and there is not even an exception for incest or rape.”

“As Justice Sotomayor articulated in her dissent, SB8 is “a flagrantly unconstitutional law engineered to prohibit women from exercising their constitutional rights …[and] a majority of Justices have opted to bury their heads in the sand.” What do you think? Should a woman have the right to choose? Is 6 weeks in prison for me to tell me I have to have a child, and I'm a mother of 3 and have miscarried 3.”

Mary Svetlik Watkins: “The right to an abortion is not guaranteed by the constitution. I am pro-life and believe life begins at conception. And the “what about rape or incest” is fallacy - it accounts for one percent of all abortions nationwide. That being said, if you are not planning pregnancy, you may not know you are pregnant at six weeks. It’s not my job to choose what a woman decides to do with an unplanned pregnancy, nor do I know her situation. This law isn't going to stop abortions. It’s going to bring back abortion butchers in back alleys. This is not going to be good for women.”

Kelly Narvaez: “This is just disgusting and nobody other than the woman herself should be able to have power over her own body. All you pro-lifers can adopt and cover all the costs of these children prior to and after birth these women and children are FORCED to carry unwillingly. Rapists, incest, medically challenged. Pro-lifers can even be responsible for the funeral costs if the infant was stillborn due todling because the government says it wasn’t medically necessary. Plus, you pro-lifers can cover all the psychiatric visits during and after for all the mental anguish you have enforced on said woman and children who had to endure a pregnancy by their rapists, or worse incest. You can also pay for the funeral expenses for those individuals who end up committing suicide because the depression and mental anguish was too much to bare knowing they were forced to carry a child, knowing the odds of living beyond the woman did not exist. I do not agree with abortion, however nobody has the right to tell me I have to have a child, and I’m a mother of 3 and have miscarried 3.”

Carmen Madarigos: “It’s not her body being mutilated and murdered. It is the body of an innocent, HELPLESS baby. This is what is horrible, not a law to prevent the mutilation death of the unborn. Is the dis-membering a human body fully capable of feeling pain ok with you? As tragic as rape and incest are, they represent 1 percent of abortions. I personally know a lady, a victim of rape, who had her child. She and he love each other with a profound bond. Murder for hire is every citizen’s business! I also have several friends who adopted children who were going to be aborted, again amazingly grateful families. The BLOODBATH of OVER 65 MILLION INNOCENT, HELPLESS BABIES LEGALLY SLAUGHTERED has cursed our nation. As CREATOR, GOD THE FATHER says, ‘YA! BASTA!’ Have you noticed the deteriorated state of our nation? We all have a soul. We all will die one day. We all will answer to ALL MIGHTY GOD. We all will spend eternity in Heaven or Hell, and that dear, is a real ‘choice!’ May the light of mercy shine upon you before your day of Judgement!”

Juan Herrera: “Just remember - normal case law provides that when an individual brings suit against another (you know, to get a $10k bounty for example) those records are public. I would imagine those who would go after providers, those who offer aid, etc. are very proud of their actions. Let’s help them brag and spread their info everywhere so everyone will know exactly who they are. Let’s see how that works out for them.”

Lydia Curran: “Disgusting. They’re setting us back to the Stone Age!!! It is a woman’s right to do with what she wants to do with her body, no one else’s. End of story. There are some cases where the child will be severely disabled and will have no quality of life. I have seen that for sure, and the parent doesn’t have the finances to care for this child. I know a person who had a child who was severely handicapped, didn’t even know he existed, and she said if she knew his life was going to be like that, she would’ve aborted the child. He died when he was 27. All those years laying in a bed, sucking his thumb even existed, he was a vegetable and she was a nurse. What if she does not believe in God? (or even if she does, it’s her decision.) It’s a waste of your time and breath, so you might as well forget it. You people think you know it all. You don’t know what others go through when they have a handicapped child with no money and nobody there to help them. You can pray all you want, but she has to live it. There are all kinds of horrible things that happen in this world, so don’t tell me what you think. It doesn’t matter. Just save it. There are going to be a lot of deaths because women will get abortions one way or another, illegally or by themselves. Look it up. That is why I say it’s putting us back into the stone ages. Women put hangers inside of them to have an abortion, or take pills, or throw themselves down on the ground. Murder for hire is every citizen’s business! I also have several friends who adopted children who were going to be aborted, again amazingly grateful families. The BLOODBATH OF OVER 65 MILLION INNOCENT, HELPLESS BABIES LEGALLY SLAUGHTERED has cursed our nation. As CREATOR, GOD THE FATHER says, ‘YA! BASTA!’ Have you noticed the deteriorated state of our nation? We all have a soul. We all will die one day. We all will answer to ALL MIGHTY GOD. We all will spend eternity in Heaven or Hell, and that dear, is a real ‘choice!’ May the light of mercy shine upon you before your day of Judgement!”

Maria Almeida Natividad was born and raised in El Paso, Texas. She grew up surrounded by the rich and distinctive Hispanic and Native American cultures of the region that had a great influence in her life and art. She was always fascinated with the history and traditions of the region and she had a love for drawing from a very early age. It was through the encouragement of her UTEP art instructor, Sally Bishop Segal, that she realized that she had a unique talent in art and she made it a mission to pursue art with a passion. Her undergraduate classes were at UTEP, Modesto Junior College and the University of Arizona in Tucson. She finally completed her BA and MA in art at UTEP. She taught all-levels art classes for several years in the public schools, part-time at El Paso Community College and is an Artist in Residence for Chicano Studies at UTEP.

Maria’s career has encompassed many areas having been a gallery owner/director, artist, muralist and educator. As a teacher she has been a strong advocate of the inclusion and integration of fine arts in the regular classroom curriculum with a priority being to instill pride in her students regarding their heritage and culture. She works in several media, including oil, acrylics, mixed media, colored pencil, and pen and ink, becoming best known for her watercolor and mixed media paintings. Maria wrote and illustrated a book titled “Famous Places in El Paso History,” a bilingual picture and activity book for children that is included in all the El Paso public libraries. As professional artist and educator, Maria has managed and organized many workshops, conferences, mural projects and art and literary events. Her art workshops provide opportunities to learn important information about the El Paso missions and the region and they encourage the participants to be culture bears of those things that make El Paso unique and exciting. It also encourages the participants to continue to be the voices of our ancestors that lived and thrived here in this fascinating desert region of the Southwest.

Her studio works have been included in many juried and non-juried exhibitions throughout the Southwest and have earned many awards and honors. Her paintings are also held in various public and private collections, including those of the Hispanic Research Center at Arizona State University, El Paso Museum of Art, Mexic-Arte Museum, Austin, Texas, University of Arkansas at Little Rock Gallery, the El Paso Public Library, University of Texas at Austin, UTSA, Coronado Studios and many others.

In 2008 she was commissioned by the El Paso Public Library to create a mural on the history of El Paso for the Judge Edward S. Marquez Mission Valley Branch Library in El Paso, Texas. This mural was one of the largest murals she has designed measuring fifteen feet wide by seven feet tall. Her artwork has been featured in two art books “Contemporary Chicana and Chicano Art” and “Triumph of Our Communities” published by Bilingual Review Press at the Hispanic Research Center at Arizona State University. One of her paintings of the Virgen of Guadalupe was used in a PBS series on Chicano Art, “Visiones”. Her art has been featured in calendars and in the literary anthology, “Hecho en Tejas” and the chapbook “Mezcla” as well as numerous articles in local, national and international periodicals. In 2007 and 2009, Maria was selected a top ten 2-D art finalist for Texas State Artist of the Year and was a featured artist in a book titled “West Texas Women Artists: A Celebration” written by Kippra Hopper and Laurie Churchill and published by Texas Tech University Press. She was also selected for a special exhibition, “Desert Modern and Beyond: El Paso Art 1960-2012” at the El Paso Museum of Art in the summer of 2012 showcasing the artists of El Paso. In 2011 and 2020 interviews on her art were taped for a special documentary featuring Latino artists by Los Angeles movie Director Jesus Treviño and can be viewed on the website: Latinopia.com. Maria was inducted in the El Paso Commission of Women Hall of Fame in the Arts category in 2015. “I believe that art can have many purposes. It can cross borders, speak many languages, give light to social issues, transcend race, religion, gender, and age. It can heal and bring beauty and peace to a changing world. My mission is to create art that is a reflection of the good of our humanity.” -MN

Her artwork can be viewed on the Hispanic Research Center at ASU website: http://latinoartcommunity.org/community/ChicArt/ArtistDir/MarNat.html.

Esta solicitud se está tramitando de manera acelerada, lo que permite que las reglas de la comisión en el 30 Código Administrativo de Texas, Capítulo 101, Subcapítulo J. La instalación propuesta emitirá los siguientes contaminantes atmosféricos: partículas que incluyen (pero no se limitan a) áridos, cemento, polvo de la carretera y partículas con diámetros de 10 micras o menos y de 2,5 micras o menos.

Esta solicitud se presentó a la TCEQ el 13 de agosto de 2021. El director ejecutivo ha completado las revisiones administrativas y técnicas de la solicitud y ha determinado que la solicitud cumple con todos los requisitos de un permiso estándar autorizado por 30 TAC § 116.611, que establecería las condiciones bajo las cuales la planta debe operar. El director ejecutivo ha tomado la decisión preliminar de expedir el registro porque cumple todas las normas aplicables. La solicitud, la decisión preliminar del director ejecutivo y el permiso estándar estarán disponibles para ver y copiar en la oficina central de la TCEQ, la oficina regional de la TCEQ en San Antonio y en la Biblioteca Pública de New Braunfels, 700 East Common Street, New Braunfels, Condado de Comal, Texas, a partir del primer día de la publicación de este aviso. El propósito de una reunión pública es brindar la oportunidad de presentar comentarios o hacer preguntas sobre la solicitud. Se celebrará una reunión pública sobre la solicitud si el director ejecutivo determina que hay un grado significativo de interés público en la solicitud o si lo pide un legislador local. Una reunión pública no es una audiencia de caso impugnado. Si se celebra una reunión pública, el plazo para presentar los comentarios del público se prolonga hasta el final de la reunión pública.

Audiencia de caso impugnado. Usted puede solicitar una audiencia de caso impugnado. Toda persona que pueda verse afectada por las emisiones de contaminantes atmosféricos de la instalación tiene derecho a solicitar una audiencia. Para solicitar una audiencia, una persona debe residir realmente en una vivienda permanente a menos de 440 yardas de la planta propuesta. Si solicita una audiencia de caso impugnado, debe presentar lo siguiente: (1) su nombre (o, en el caso de un grupo o asociación, un representante oficial), dirección postal y número de teléfono durante el día; (2) el nombre del solicitante y el número de registro; (3) la declaración

Deben identificarse los intereses que el grupo o asociación pretende proteger. Puede presentar sus propuestas de ajustes a la solicitud que satisfagan sus preocupaciones. Véase la sección de contactos.

Acción de la TCEQ. Después de la fecha límite para los comentarios públicos, el director ejecutivo considerará los comentarios y preparará una respuesta a todos los comentarios públicos relevantes y materiales, o significativos. La decisión del director ejecutivo sobre la solicitud, y cualquier respuesta a los comentarios, se enviará por correo a todas las personas en la lista de correo. Si no se recibe ninguna solicitud de audiencia de caso impugnado a tiempo, o si se retiran todas las solicitudes de audiencia, el director ejecutivo podrá emitir la aprobación definitiva de la solicitud. Si no se retiran todas las solicitudes de audiencia oportunas, el director ejecutivo no emitirá la aprobación definitiva del permiso y remitirá la solicitud y las peticiones a los comisarios para que las examinen en una reunión programada de la comisión. La Comisión sólo podrá conceder una solicitud de audiencia de caso impugnado sobre cuestiones que el solicitante haya presentado en sus comentarios oportunos y que no hayan sido retirados posteriormente. Si se concede una audiencia, el objeto de la misma se limitará a las cuestiones de hecho controvertidas o a las cuestiones mixtas de hecho y de derecho relativas a las preocupaciones pertinentes y materiales sobre la calidad del aire presentadas durante el periodo de comentarios. Cuestiones como el valor de la propiedad, el ruido, la seguridad del tráfico y la zonificación quedan fuera de la jurisdicción de la Comisión para ser tratadas en este procedimiento.

The philosophy behind the Pour Box Mobile Coffee Bar is simple: “You can't pour from an empty cup, take care of yourself.”

The Pour Box owner, Desiree Crawford opened her mobile coffee bar at the Dakota East Side Ice House earlier this summer with the support of her family and friends. The mobile coffee bar is a family business and she enjoys filling coffee cups with her daughters in the community.

Crawford never drank coffee before recently and is enjoying learning about the different ways to prepare coffee drinks. Daughter Bianca is passionate about making specialty lattes like lavender honey, dirty chai, mocha and other tasty seasonal beverages you will find on the menu.

“We do so much for each other, we have to stay grounded,” said the Afro-Latina owner who explained that the Pour Box is a project that has been years in the making. Throughout her long career in corporate America, she had always envisioned opening a local coffee bar business. She learned that relationships are formed in the break room and not in the boardroom and began to appreciate that so many important conversations happen over a cup of coffee.

Desiree’s partner and local handyman, Bruce Hill, owner of Hill Construction and Associates, was happy to build her a custom coffee trailer after years of her dreaming up the concept for the business. The pair have coffee together every morning before they leave for the day and Bruce joins Desiree every week to hitch up the coffee trailer and transport it to and from the patio location.

The mobile coffee bar is set up facing Dakota street on the patio and is also accessible from the adjacent south Hackberry street that welcomes morning foot traffic like a grandma who walks her nieto to the nearby elementary school and new neighbors who used to walk to convenience stores for coffee before they found The Pour Box.

Desiree said that the neighborhood really needed a community coffee spot that was accessible to the nearby neighborhoods like Denver Heights, Highland Park and Highland Hills. She feels like this area is a good area to grow with and insists that the coffee trailer is not work for her and instead energizes her passion for coffee and community.

“I raised my kids and a bunch of other people’s kids,” said Desiree, who grew up on the south east side of San Antonio and uplifted many young women in the area through coaching the women's basketball team at Highlands high school for many years.

She likes to show love and often gives out complimentary coffee to busy patrons and complimentary hot chocolate to kids who accompany their parents. Since launching earlier this summer, Desiree has enjoyed the regulars and can remember their custom orders. Family members and many Highlands Alumni are treating themselves to a new grounding morning ritual at the Pour Box.

“We need encouragement and support from our community,” said Desiree. The owners of The Dakota East Side Ice House introduced the idea for The Pour Box to set up in the large patio space. They have been a reliable source of support and insight for the new operation and remind her to be patient with the new business.

The mobile coffee bar owner is poised to support private events and local produce markets outside of the east side corner patio in the future. The family said they are happy to be a part of the growing and diverse home-grown San Antonio Coffee community that offers so many coffee selections.

You can visit the Pour Box and get some full bodied, locally sourced coffee and a fresh outside patio in the heart of the south east side at The Dakota East Side Ice House every Wednesday through Saturday from 7am to noon.

San Antonio Hosts HA Comedy Festival: The Art of Comedy Once Again

Interview by Julia Aguillon Article by Celinda De La Fuente

San Anto kicked off Latinx Heritage Month with a diverse group of comedians for a three day event, September 17-19, 2021, with Jokesters Pub N Grub as one of its five locations which featured a plethora of dynamite hosts and comedians including, but not limited to: Emilio Rivera, Paul Rodriguez, Danny Trejo, Rick Gutierrez, Carlos Santos, and Chingo Bling. Southside San Antonio native and comedian Rick Gutierrez, who hosted a few of the shows, began his career in his 30s when he quit his job to pursue his passion of comedy, has much experience in this field as he has participated in the Latino Laugh Festival in the past, and continues with his success now.

“‘At one point, I was only one of four Latino comics touring the Midwest. That was weird to me, like, they didn’t know about us...Now you have [comics] like George Lopez and Gabriel Iglesias. You got Chingo Bling, and countless other guys, but there’s still not enough out there right now,’” Gutierrez comments.

Gutierrez also sees the need for more Latina representation within the industry. More and more Latina comics are also being featured presently such as Carmen Lynch, Lisa Alvarado, and Paulina Chavez who took the Lila Cockrell stage as part of the three day event. The HA Comedy Festival also featured “a live interactive panel celebrating the release of the ‘Comedy Chingonas’ HBO Max special, where the festival stars share their inspiring journeys as Latinas in Comedy.”

“There’re a lot of different views now about being Latino opposed to being the normal stereotypical [Latino]...we’re part of the fabric. We’re doctors. We’re attorneys, blue collars, construction workers, people who own businesses,” Gutierrez explains.

Thus, there is much more to explore in the field of comedy regarding representation.

“It’s not a ‘Latino Festival’, it’s a festival where Latinos go apply their trade. It’s like I always tell everyone, I’m a comic who happens to be Mexican. That’s the thing about this show we are doing. It’s encompassing everybody, whether you’re Puerto Rican, Dominican, etc...These [comedians] have been around for a while, and nobody has seen them yet. That’s sad. Now we have a place to put them and show how wonderful they really are,” states Harlandale HS Alum Gutierrez.

“That’s what I love about doing a show like this. When you come out and you see the show, you see the diversity amongst Latinos, and you see ‘the funny’ through every color of the spectrum, you’re gonna go ‘Oh my God, we are amazing people!’ because we are,” he adds.

Gutierrez concludes with notable consejos, “Don’t believe people when they tell you ‘you can’t’...Always go forward. Strive. Strive. Strive.”

Keep pushing, gente. Don’t give up on your dreams.

Abraham Mojica: Making Magic Through Art

By Dr. Ricardo Romo

Abraham Mojica has a fascination with bulls, horses, elephants, tigers, and alligators. Over his short career of seven years as an artist, he has painted dozens of these large animals. These animals, elephants, horses, and tigers, for example, are nostalgic recollections of his days working for a Mexican circus. Bulls also have a special appeal to him, and he favors showing them staring at you or on their hind legs as if preparing to charge. The bulls are a reminder of his years living in rural communities of Central Mexico and visiting Plazas de Toros throughout Mexico.

Abraham, as he prefers to be known, welcomed a packed audience of 300 masked guests to his solo exhibit at the Atrium of the new Frost Bank in San Antonio on September 2nd, 2021. He was overwhelmed by the interest in his new works, especially given these difficult Covid times. Nearly all of his paintings sold. Over the past few years, Abraham has done sufficiently well in art sales to expand his painting and sales activities to Miami and New York where he shares small studio spaces with other local artists.

Abraham was born in Guadalajara, Jalisco in 1977, surrounded by well-educated extended family members. His father, a physician, preferred to work among the poorest communities of his state of Jalisco and in the surrounding states of Michoacan and Colima. Dr. Mojica believed he could make a difference in health care by focusing his efforts on the rural poor of Mexico. Dr. Mojica and his family never settled in any one community. They moved about, sometimes living in as many as eight to ten communities in one year.

At age thirteen, Abraham went into the seminary to train for the priesthood. Several years later, however, he left the seminary and ran off to join the circus. In the circus, he was trained as a mime performer and magician. It was during the circus years that he became closely acquainted with elephants, tigers, and horses. After several years of traveling with the circus to every part of Mexico, he traveled to Latin America on his own making a living as a mime performer.

When Abraham first moved to the United States, he lived and worked in Oakland finding jobs in the construction industries. He relocated to Albuquerque, New Mexico where he worked as a contractor remodeling homes with a specialty in interior design. The 2008 housing market crash led him to consider moving to Texas where the Great Recession had a smaller impact on home building and renovation. That year he made a permanent move to San Antonio where he continued his work as a contractor.

A family tragedy in Mexico left Abraham grieving for months, leading him to rethink his life, including his work. His heart was so weighed down by pain and grief that he found it difficult to work. When a friend recommended painting as a therapeutic solution... to his pain and grief, his life turned around for the better. Painting gave him significant cathartic peace of mind.

I visited Abraham in early September shortly after his show at the Frost Building Atrium. He has a modest studio in midtown San Antonio near the Courthouse on Flores Street. Although Abraham has been painting full-time for a relatively short period, he approaches his canvases with confidence as if he had painted all his life. His style is highly unusual in that he paints with both hands.

Abraham’s walls and floors are filled with his most recent completions, several to be shipped to buyers and others that he does not wish to sell. While we visited, his phone rang constantly. Most of his calls were inquiries about the status of certain paintings or about the latest story about his work found in the Sept/Oct issue of Maxim, a New York City fashion magazine.

Maxim writer Jordan Riefe titled his article on Abraham, “Escape Artist.” Riefe commented on the artist’s travels throughout Latin America as a performer and his more than ten years of training in martial arts. Perhaps also the title of Riefe’s article is a reference to Abraham’s escape from his previous work as a contractor which often required him to spend full days installing ceramic tile or painting interior walls. The work was tedious and exhausting. Discovering the world of painting gave Abraham an escape and a brighter outlook on life.

Many of Abraham’s new paintings are an elaboration of his life in Mexico. His recent series of “Brujas” or witches are striking portraits of Mexican women whose faces seem to hide deep secrets. Abraham is full of curiosity and is not certain where his imagination will take him for his next series of paintings. Whatever it is, it will be imaginative and marvelous.

Congressman Castro Statement on Hispanic Heritage Month

Provided by Alex Sarabia

Congressman Joaquin Castro (TX-20) released the following statement to mark the start of Hispanic Heritage Month:

“Hispanic Heritage Month is an important moment to celebrate the immense contributions of Latinos to the prosperity of the United States. This country is a nation of and built by Latinos. Since the very beginning, Latinos have played an instrumental role in shaping American society through entrepreneurship, public service, and more. Throughout this pandemic, the powerful spirit and unwavering commitment of Latino workers have greatly benefited all Americans — as essential workers, they have kept families healthy, safe and fed.”

“My hometown of San Antonio is a quintessential example of Latino contributions to the United States. I am very proud of the San Antonio community’s legacy of standing up for civil rights, voting rights, equal opportunity, and the fair representation of Latinos in Texas and nationwide. It was in San Antonio where institutions like the Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund were founded. It was in San Antonio where students and parents pushed for equitable school funding in SAISD v. Rodriguez, and while they were ultimately unsuccessful at the Supreme Court, they inspired state lawmakers to reform public school finance. And I’m confident that it will be in San Antonio where future Latino leaders will continue to fight for the wellbeing and improvement of Latinos across the United States.

“As we use this month to also reflect on the unique challenges Latino communities face, President Biden and Congress remain committed to Building Back Better and delivering for Latino families. Lowering the cost of health care, prescriptions, child care, housing, and higher education, cutting taxes for working- and middle-class families, and creating millions of good-paying jobs in the industries of the future will improve the lives of Latinos for generations. Congress must act with urgency to deliver progress — including a long overdue pathway to citizenship for Dreamers, TPS holders, farmworkers, and millions of essential workers.”

“For far too long, Latinos have been excluded from the image-defining and narrative-creating institutions of American society. From film and television to books and news, Latinos are not fully reflected and woefully underrepresented in the media industry. I am working hard with my colleagues in the Congressional Hispanic Caucus and state lawmakers across the country to address this systemic exclusion and empower Latinos to tell our stories. In the years to come, I hope the contributions of Latinos grow in recognition and our strides in economic and social justice are matched with an appreciation of Latino cultural advancement.”

Convocatoria para Encuestas de Arte Público y Propuestas de Murales de Artistas

Por Courtney Clevenger
Traducido por LPT

La Oficina de Relaciones Comunitarias de la Universidad de Texas en San Antonio y el Departamento de Arte y Cultura de la Ciudad de San Antonio están asociando para crear nuevas exhibiciones de arte que realcen el área del centro de San Antonio. El proyecto, liderado por la Iniciativa de Asociaciones Comunitarias Westside de UTSA, involucrará a artistas locales en la creación de un punto focal único dentro de la creciente huella del centro de la universidad.

Esto es el comienzo de lo que agregó Racca-Sittre. “Este es solo el comienzo de lo que puede ser en futuro”, dijo el director de la escuela. “Nuestro objetivo es que este proyecto se convierta en un esfuerzo para continuar creando murales de arte público en el campus de UTSA para que esto suceda”.

Desde su inicio en 2019, el Centro Comunitario Westside de UTSA ha logrado grandes avances en la construcción de asociaciones vitales con la comunidad de San Antonio en un esfuerzo por continuar brindando oportunidades educativas y económicas. El centro actualmente sirve como enlace entre la comunidad y la universidad, fomentando las relaciones a través de la iniciativa Westside Community Partnerships. La iniciativa tiene como objetivo amplificar las fortalezas económicas y culturales del West Side al reunir el talento y los recursos de la universidad para participar en asociaciones comunitarias estratégicas.

Esta oportunidad de arte público es un claro reflejo de la visión de UTSA de fomentar la participación de la comunidad y el campus”, dijo Leal.
